

Terms of Registration

1. By registering for this event, participants confirm that they are 16 years of age or older and comply with the age restriction terms.
2. Participants must be in an appropriate physical and mental condition and possess the necessary skills for participation.
3. Participation involves a degree of risk, and neither the organiser (MINUS01) nor any associated companies shall be held responsible for any injuries sustained.
4. Any damage caused to others or their property is the participant's responsibility, ensuring Minus01 or any involved companies do not incur any loss.
5. All terms and conditions set by the organiser must be adhered to, along with safety protocols and instructions provided after registration and selection.
6. All equipment (including sports gear, safety equipment, and required devices) must be in proper working order, well-maintained, and suitable for the event.
7. Participation is permitted only after a full inspection of the site, track, equipment, and safety measures.
8. The organiser reserves the right to refuse participation at any time if deemed necessary.
9. By registering, permission is granted to Minus01 or authorised third parties to capture and use audio, video recordings, and photographs ("Material") from the event.
10. The participant's name, image, voice, appearance, and performance may be used for any purpose, in all media, indefinitely.
11. MINUS01 has the right to use, broadcast, display, or reproduce the Material in any media and may alter or modify it as necessary.
12. These rights may be transferred to third parties without requiring additional approval, and no financial compensation or rewards shall be provided for appearance in the Material.
13. Participants are permitted to record Participant Content (photos, videos) for personal use, including sharing on personal websites or social media.
14. Minus01 retains the intellectual property and media rights to the event and may request access to the Participant Content.
15. Any commercial use of Participant Content requires prior consent from MINUS01.
16. Participation in this event is voluntary, and no rewards, compensation, or benefits may be demanded through forceful or unfair means.
